We will show you how to operate any equipment so that you are competent in their use. We'll also set up (if required) any bars or equipment if we deliver items but will require assistance to move such items.

Deliveries are from hard standing adjacent to main door, ground level entrance, unless pre-arranged. An additional charge will be imposed in respect of waiting time should the driver be unduly delayed or detained while attempting to effect a delivery or collection especially due to uneven ground or a delivery distance exceeding 20 metres from the vehicle parking.

It is admitted that the person signing the delivery note had the opportunity to inspect the hired equipment and confirm the equipment is received in good condition.

Queries on goods received must be notified immediately. If the hirer has any cause for complaint concerning the conditions, suitability or performance of equipment hired, Cestrian Bars should be notified immediately. No consideration for redress will be given to a grievance once the equipment has been used.

The Customer shall remain responsible and liable for any loss, damage or theft to the Hire Goods until the Hire Goods are collected by Cestrian Bars unless Cestrian Bars fails to collect the Hire Goods within 3 working days from the end of the Hire Period whereupon the Supplier shall be liable for any loss, damage or theft thereafter.
